INSTRUCTOR UPGRADE GUIDELINES

Recreational Youth Referee Instructor: Candidates must successfully complete the 9 hour Recreational Youth Referee Instructor Course. Anyone certified as a Recreational Youth Referee Instructor can be eligible to take the Associate Referee Instructor Course after demonstrating teaching proficiency at the RYRI level.

Associate Instructor: Candidates must successfully complete the 2 day, 16 hour, Associate Instructor Course. Before requesting an upgrade to Referee Instructor, individual must perform satisfactorily for one year as an Associate Instructor.

Referee Instructor: Successful completion of the 3 day, 24 hour. "Instructional Theory Into Practice" (ITIP) is required. Before requesting an upgrade to State Instructor, individual must perform satisfactorily for one year as a Referee Instructor.

State Instructor: Required course work includes two, 24-hour modules: "Train the Trainer" (TT) and "Improving Instructor Effectiveness" (IIE). Successful completion allows the candidate to register as State Instructor. Individuals then become eligible for the next instructor level.

National Status: There are two paths to achieve National Status. NATIONAL STATUS IS NOT GRANTED AUTOMATICALLY. In addition to the statements below, the candidate must be known and respected by the general soccer community and recognized for valuable contributions to the program.

- National Instructor: Candidates must have refereed at the highest levels of the game. National or International Panel personnel having held that status for at least 3 years are the principal candidates for National Instructor. Candidates must also have successfully completed the Referee and State Referee Instructor course work as well as 2 National Instructor Modules or 1 Module and a Special Project. Appointments will be made by the United States Soccer Federation National Program for Referee Development office. Consideration will be based upon candidates individual expertise as an instructor and his or her knowledge and experience of refereeing at the highest levels of the game during the time the individual was refereeing.

INSTRUCTOR UPGRADE GUIDELINES

- National Instructor Trainer: Candidates must possess skills and competencies required and valued by the National Program for Referee Development, but may not be required to have refereed at high levels of the game. Candidates must have successfully completed Associate, Referee and State Referee Instructor course work as well as all available National Instructor Modules and a special project. Candidates may be required to provide a portfolio of original soccer and or soccer instructional work. Appointments will be made by the United States Soccer Federation National Program for Referee Development office. Consideration will be based upon the candidates individual expertise as an instructor or in a specific area of skill or competency possessed by that individual. National Instructor Trainers must meet all the law knowledge requirements that a National Instructor is required to meet.

NATIONAL PROGRAM OF REFEREE DEVELOPMENT

Purpose	The Referee Training is designed to develop the highest level of competency possible among all Referees. This development is implemented through a series of training modules and materials relevant to soccer officiating.
Components	The National Program for Referee Development comprises of two segments, the first of which is designed to help candidates reach the next higher level through a series of Entry Level and Upgrading Courses (Courses). The second segment is designed to help referees maintain and improve their refereeing competency through In-Service Training (Clinics). Each of these two segments contains six categories of expertise: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Laws of the Game• The Diagonal System of Control and Game Management Techniques• Refereeing Psychology, Discretion and People Management Techniques• Personal Management• Fitness• Administrative Skills, Reports
Courses	Entry Level Courses allow the candidate to enter a particular level of referee classification, such as Associate Referee, Referee or State Referee Specific details and time allocations pertaining to each Course are outlined in the appropriate manuals Upgrading Courses allow referees to upgrade to the next higher level, such as a Grade 8 Referee may upgrade to a Grade 7 Referee The specific details and time allocations pertaining to each Course are outlined in the appropriate manuals

Clinics

In-Service Training Clinics are a means for referees to enhance their knowledge and application of the Laws

The State Director of Instruction (SDI) is required to provide the proper number of hours of training clinics for Assistant Referees, Referees and State Referees, and for Recreational Referees when requested to do so by the State Youth Association or the SYRA. See the current edition of the Referee Administrative Handbook for the requirements for each grade.

The scheduling of these Clinics, and the selected subject matter, is at the discretion of the SDI

It is recommended the State Director of Instruction make available at least six (6) hours of Clinics for National Referees and candidates for National Referees

The scheduling of such Clinics is at the discretion of the SDI

Expertise Categories

Laws of the Game: To elevate the competency of the Referee to the highest level, in all areas: knowledge and application of the Laws; and duties and responsibilities

The Diagonal System of Control: To standardize guidelines for Positioning, cooperation and general field procedures

Refereeing Psychology, Discretion and Techniques: To reflect on management of players, coaches, and others involved in competitive stress. Includes the use of discretionary techniques and applications

Personal Management: To deal with the referee's personal preparation for the game, personal grooming, including refereeing equipment, self-development, and the professional conduct required of all Referees

Fitness: To deal with the development of a personal awareness and physical fitness required of each Referee

Administrative Skills and Reports: To establish competency in administrative and managerial skills needed to prepare and submit reports and to maintain records
